

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Northwest Side Y. P. S. L. holds 2d annual Hard Times party and dance at headquarters, 2725 Division, tonight, 8 p. m. Prizes will be awarded for best costumes. C. M. Madsen will give short campaign talk.

Socialists of 33d and 35th wards will hold open-air meeting tonight at Keystone and North avs., 8 p. m. Speakers: Otto Branstetter and Wm. E. Dunn.

Irving Park Y. P. S. L. meets tonight for bunco party and dance, at Bittke's hall, Belmont and Kedzie avs. Formal opening of new headquarters.

Sun., 7:45 p. m., Rev. Jenkin Lloyd Jones, will talk on "Peace" at Grace church, Kimball and Wrightwood. Congressman Frank Buchanan will make introductory remarks.

Dr. Alexander J. McIvor-Tyndall will address meeting in Hall 210, Masonic Temple, Sun., 11 a. m., on "Overcoming Fate." Musical program.

Protest meeting against imprisonment of Tresca, Schmidt and Scarlett, I. W. W. organizers held for murder in connection with Minnesota iron miners' strike, will be held all over the U. S., Sunday, Oct. 22. In Chicago Wm. D. Haywood will speak in English and other speakers in different languages. Meeting at Iron Workers' hall, Halsted and Van Buren, 8 p. m. Every one invited.

Fellowship Circle Y. P. S. L. campaign committee urges all to distribute copies of The Optimist, which can be had Sunday at Socialist headquarters. Political mass meeting will be held at Wicker Park hall, Sun., 2:30 p. m.

Universalist Church of the Redeemer, Robey and Warren; Fred A. Moore, minister. Subject, "Christian Recreations." Sun., 10:45 a. m.

Mrs. Ella Carr, ass't sec'y of General Christian Socialist Fellowship and wife of editor of Christian Socialist, will give address Sun., Oct. 22, 2:45 p. m., at regular monthly meeting of Chicago Christian Socialist Fellowship, at hall 601, Masonic Temple. Subject: "The Holy City or the New Social Order." Women who love humanity urged to hear her.

Public Forum will be started Sun., 8 p. m., at Workers' institute, 920 S. Ashland blvd. Play "Justice" will be discussed by high school department of the institute.

Society of Superites and Super-crats meets at Colonial hall, 30 W. Randolph, Sun., 8 p. m. Opening of winter session. F. M. Wilkesbarre speaks on "What Is a Supercrat?" Everybody welcome.

H. Percy Ward of Chicago and Dr. Frank of N. Y. debate at drill hall, Masonic Temple, 11 a. m., Sun. Subject, "Did Roman Catholicism Precipitate or Cause the Present European War?"

At the City club luncheon, Monday, John R. Shillady, sec'y mayor's committee of unemployment, New York, speaks on "What Can Business and Government Do to Prevent Unemployment?" Eats at 11:30. Speaking, 1 p. m.

Mass meeting of parents will be held at Workers' Inst., 920 S. Ashland blvd., Mon., 8 p. m., to hear talks on "The Truth about the Board of Education and the Teachers' Federation." Miss Ida Fursman, president of the federation, and Miss O'Connor, organizer of the federation, will speak.

Important meet of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers' union, Thurs eve., Oct. 26, at Iron Workers' hall, Halsted and Van Buren. Prominent speakers will talk on the achievements of the present administration and its indorsement by the American Federation of Labor.

Columbus, O.—$700,000 of $1,000,000 Methodist Woman's Home Missionary society wants for year's work pledged at national convention of society.